Steps away, across sidewalk

The The Estates of Sandy Pointe is an established 46825 neighborhood of mature trees, sidewalks, and a stocked community pond with a fountain – the kind of setting new construction takes twenty years to grow into. The home sits on a low-traffic corner cul-de-sac, so through traffic never reaches the door, and the pond path starts across the sidewalk.

For anyone working at a nearby medical campus, the commute is measured in minutes, not miles – and I-69 puts the rest of Fort Wayne within easy reach. Shops, groceries, and coffee on Coldwater Road are close enough for a quick errand. Fort Wayne Community Schools serves the address.
